CHAIRMEN TO MEET.

Heads of Board of Trade Committees to Foregather Monday.

A conference of all the committee chairmen of the Washington Board of Trade has been called by President Bradley, to be held Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Important legislation being pushed by the various committees will be taken up and discussed mon laborers in joining in the cele-bration.

No invitations were necessary— everybody was invited.

Immediately following the ceremonies a banquet was given to the throng in a mammoth canvas tent covering an acre of ground adjoining the Salmen home. A brass band from Bogalusa furnished the music. One hundred and twenty-five trained waiters were brought from New Orleans to attend to the catering. Here is what they had to serve: Twenty-five hundred loaves of bread for sandwiches, 500 pounds of turkey (white meat), 500 pounds of smoked hams, 350 pounds of prime ribs of beef, 350 pounds of smoked ox tongue. 150 pounds of butter, 150 pounds of cheese, 2,500 rallons of coffee, 300 gallons of fruit punch, 4,000 bisques, 10,000 assorted cakes.

The wedding cake was three feet at the base and five feet high.

Wedding gifts valued at $100,000 were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will spend 125 Waiters Called In.

IN MEMORIAM. BECKER. In sad but loving remembrance of our deah mother. ANNA BECKER, who de-parted this life five years ago today, Janu-ary 28, 1917.

Just a line of sweet remembrance, Just a memory fond and true; Just a token of love's devotion. That our hearts still long for you. HER DEVOTED CHILDREN.

CARTER. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother and grandmother, ANNIE C. CARTER, who fell asleep in Jesus one year ago today, January 28, 1921.

Days of sadness still come over me, Secret tears do often flow.

But your memory keeps you near me, Though you died one year ago.

A host of friends and kindred, too. We have to love each other; But on this earth God gives to each Of us one dear mother.

What is home without a mother? What are all the joys we meet. When her loving smile no longer Greets the coming of our feet?

HER LOVING CHILDREN, GEORGE, VIC TORIA GARNETT, IDA AND ADA CAR TER.

Keep her, Jesus, in thy harping
Till I reach that shining shore,
Then, O, Master, let me have her,
Love her as I did before
HER DEVOTED GRANDDAUGHTER,
VIOLA CARTER.

CAVE. In sad but loving remembrance of our darling daughter, granddaughter and niece, ELLA IVONTE, who departed this life two years ago today, January 28, 1920.

In our hearts your memory lingers, Sweetly, tender, fond and true. There is not a day, dear Ivonte, That we do not think of you. HER MOTHER AND FAMILY.

DAVIS. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear brother, DAINGERPIELD DAVIS, who departed this life one year ago today. January 22, 1921. In Providence churchyard. Softly sleeping where the flowers Gently wave, lies my brother We tried so hard to save.

Death rides on every passing
Breeze and lurks in every flower;
Each season has its own disease,
Its peril every hour. *
BY HIS SISTER BETTY. KELLEY. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear brother and uncle, NICHOLAS H. KELLEY, who died two years ago today. January 28, 1920. THE FAMILY.

MARTIN. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son, REGGIE MARTIN, who de-parted this life one month ago today, Decem-ber 28, 1921. A happy home I once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still;
But death has left a vacancy
This world can never fill.
HIS BROKEN-HEARTED MOTHER, MRS,
CLARA C. MARTIN,

MILLS. In loving remembrance of my beloves husband, JOHN F. MILLS, who departed this life two years ago today, January 28, 1920.

In my heart your memory lingers Sweetly, tender, fond and true.
There is not a day, dear husband,
That I do not think of you.
HIS LOVING WIFE, ELLA MILLS.

white. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, MINIST WHITE, who departed this life one year ago today, January 28, 1921. Fill God in His mercy sent a message of love And took him from all his pains to heaven abore. WIFE AND CHILDREN. * YATES. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear beloved mother, ANNIE V. YATES, who left me one year ago today, January 28, 1921.

Oh, mother, thy gentle voice is hushed.
Thy warm, true heart is still.
I watched you day by dfy,
Until, with broken heart, I saw you pass away.

Mother, how hard I tried to save you: Prayers and tears were all in vain. Happy angels came and took you From this world of care and pain. Keep her, Jesus, in Thy keeping. Till I reach that shining shore. Then, O Master, let me have her. Love her as I did before.

My darling mother is sleeping,
No care is on her brow;
Oh, blame me not for weeping,
For I have no mother now,
HER LONELY AND DEVOTED SON, LR
NEST A. YATES.

YATES. In remembrance of our loving sister, ANNIE V. YATES, who died January 2: 1921. one year ago today. In our hearts your memory lingers, Tender, sweetly, fond and true. There is not a day, dear sister, That we do not think of you. Although we cannot clasp your hand,
Your face we cannot see.
Just this little token shows
That we still remember thee.
YOUR LOVING BROTHER AND SISTER
